2020 ITGA FORESTRY & TIMBER YEARBOOK

Following the continued success of the ITGA Forestry and Timber Yearbook and its associated online directory which can be accessed through www.forestryyearbook.ie, www.forestry.ie and www.itga.ie, ITGA are currently planning the 2020 Forestry & Timber Yearbook and Directory.

The Yearbook and online directory are promoted through ongoing advertising in the farming media.

The websites receive average combined traffic of over 302,600 hits per month.

(Over 3.6 million hits annualised)

Bookings for advertisements and listings in the 2020 Yearbook and Directory can now be made.

Our advertisement rates remain unchanged.

All those who take a listing in the Yearbook will be included in the online Directory and where full or half page Yearbook advertisements are taken, the listings for these advertisers will be featured with their logo and advertisement in the online Directory.

The closing date for receipt of all advertising copy and directory listing is 31st August 2019.

The Forestry and Timber Yearbook is circulated to all sectors of the forest, timber and wood-energy industries. All advertisers will receive a complimentary copy of the Forestry Yearbook.

31st EDITION OF ITGA FORESTRY & TIMBER YEARBOOK

ADVERTISING RATE CARD

The 2020 Edition of the Forestry & Timber Yearbook and Online Directory will feature a Directory of companies, consultants, enterprises and organisations involved in the Irish forestry industry and forest products sector. It will also include comprehensive industry statistics, details of current grants, premium rates and forestry taxation. The Yearbook and websites will be employed as the forest industry reference source over 2020 giving all advertisements and Directory listings a considerably longer lifespan than other publications.

A continuous advertising campaign further promotes the Forestry & Timber Yearbook and its online Directories.
